How to Play?

Shuffle the cards well. Deal out 4 cards to each player. Place the remaining cards in a stack facing down in the center.

Each player, in turn, asks one of the other players for a card that will complete one of the sets in their hand.

How does a player ask for a card? – Without using any words! Instead, the player tries their best to imitate the funny face on the card.

If the player gets the card they asked for, they can request another card.

If they do not get the card they need, they must draw a new card out of the stack, and the turn moves on to the player on their right.

When a player completes a set of 4 of a kind cards, they reveal it and place it in front of them. Then, the turn moves to the next player. If a player has no cards left, they draw one card from the stack. If no cards are left in the stack, the players continue to play until all the sets of 4 are completed. The winner is the player with the most sets.

Additional Game Options

Memory Game

Played with pairs of Funny Faces cards (22 cards/11 pairs). Shuffle the cards and arrange them in rows, facing down. Turn over any two cards.

Try to remember which funny face was on each card and where it was located. Watch carefully during the other player's turn, and try to remember the information. The game ends when all the card pairs are matched. The winner is the player with the most matching pairs.

Broken Telephone

The players sit in a circle with their heads bent down and eyes closed. The first player draws a card. Then, they tap the shoulder of the player sitting next to them and try to pass on the funny face on the card to them by imitating it. When finished, the first player closes their eyes and lower their head down. The next player does the same, until the funny face has been passed on to all the players. What funny face will be passed back on to the original player?
